The Briefing

from hardie grant publishing

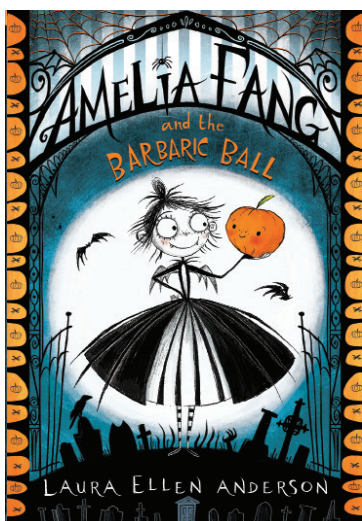

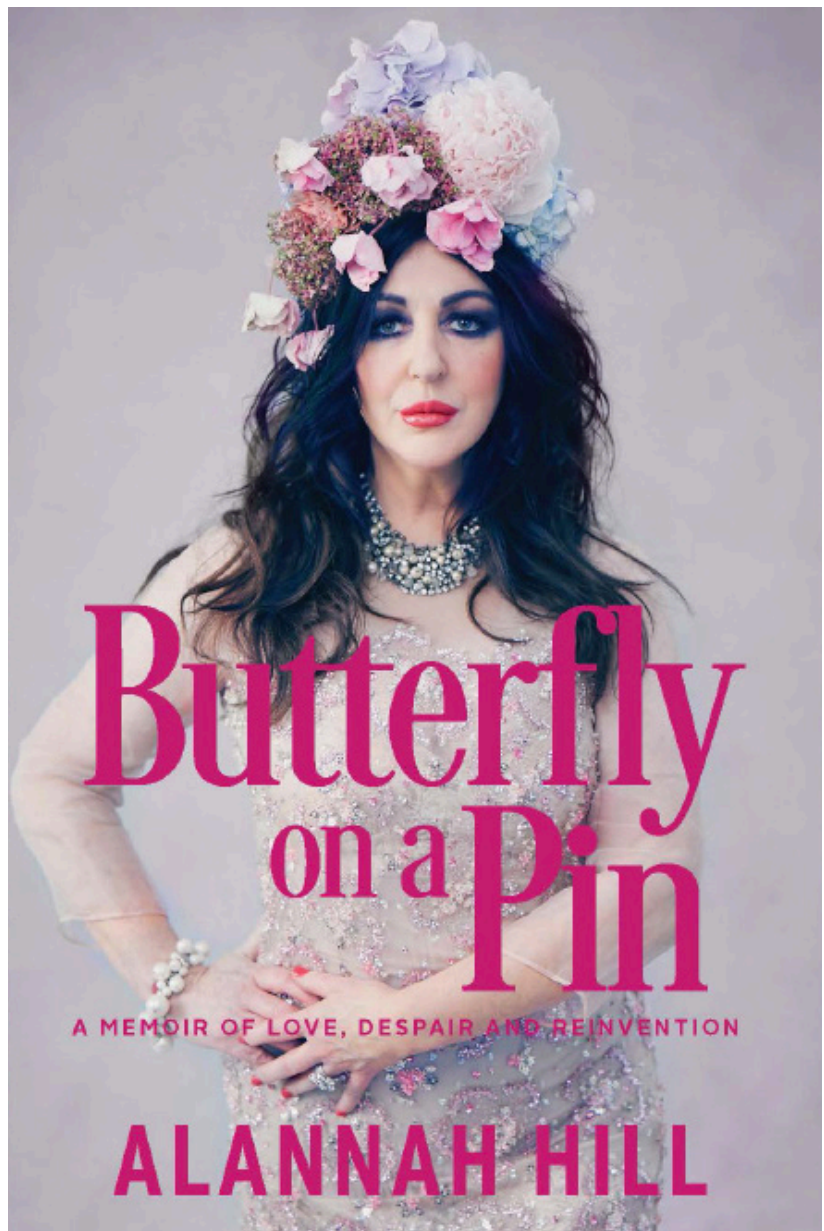

Dear Booksellers,

We have a fabulous list of books to show you this month, and we're especially thrilled to bring you Butterfly on a Pin by the glamorous Alannah Hill. This is a memoir of love, despair and reinvention from one of Australia's most successful fashion designers. Alannah bares her soul in this hilarious and heartbreaking book of overcoming adversity and daring to dream.

This month we're also excited to be publishing Marcia Langton: Welcome to Country. This is a completely new and inclusive guidebook to Indigenous Australia and the Torres Strait Islands. It's for everyone travelling around Australia who wants to gain an insight into the culture that has thrived here for over 50,000 years. This book will quickly become one of the most important travel guides to be published in recent times.

At Hardie Grant Egmont we're strapping ourselves in for the rollercoaster read The Orchard Underground, a suspenseful middle-grade mystery about uncovering secrets in a town where there are no secrets. Perfect for readers 9+. We're also sinking our teeth into Amelia Fang, a spooktacular new middle grade vampiress series. Finally we are celebrating love and diversity this month with Sophie Beer's Love Makes a Family.
