Dear Booksellers,

Welcome the start of spring with these vibrant titles from Hardie Grant!

Discover how to embrace the sustainable side of sweets by using seasonal fruits, alternative sugars, wholegrains and other flours in Sweet Seasons. This masterclass in modern baking includes wonderful recipes for perfect pastries and pies, brownies, biscuits and more, from fabulous Florentines to luscious lemon poppy-seed cakes. This is the only sweet book you'll need to celebrate all of life's seasons. If you're looking to explore the Sunshine State this spring, look no further than Undiscovered Queensland, a stunning guide featuring all the under-the-radar getaway spots from each corner of the vast state. Skip the commercialised theme parks and overcrowded beaches, and discover the places locals love! For those looking for home inspiration, Retreat offers an intimate look inside 24 unique and beautiful homes outside the city bounds. Featuring Q&As with the homeowners, design expert Lucy Glade-Wright's inspirational styling ideas that can be replicated at home and stunning photography, this book explores what compels someone to pursue a tree-change.

From Ultimo Press comes the heartbreaking and hilarious My Brother's Ashes are in a Sandwich Bag by Michelle Brasier — a memoir that moves between grief and joy, reminding us that life's too short to be taken seriously.

In fiction, In the Margins by Gail Holmes was inspired by a real person and is the story of spirited book-collector Frances Wolfreton — the woman who uniquely preserved the earliest part of Shakespeare's legacy.

Claris makes a return in her latest adventure, Magnificent Mess! When Claris' friends ask her to create some chic new fashion looks for them, she's only too happy to help. But her apartment is tiny and her friends are too big! Her best friend Monsieur has an idea: there's a secret room at the top of the Eiffel Tower that would give her plenty of space. They just need some help getting her belongings all the way to the top ...
