THE STORY BEHIND THE DESIGN

William Morris (1834–1896) was one of the most celebrated practitioners of the Arts and Crafts movement. He embraced the ideal of craftspeople taking pride in their personal handiwork, as opposed to the dehumanizing onslaught of the Industrial Revolution's mass production techniques. He famously said that any decoration is futile when it does not remind you of something beyond itself.

Morris specialized in the ancient technique of hand woodblock printing to create his textile patterns and sought inspiration for his famous repeating patterns from the natural world and the decorative artists before him. The influence of "millefleurs" tapestries, early prints of herbs and the abundance of exquisite detail in medieval art can be appreciated in his works, like this Pink Honeysuckle design.

THE STORY BEHIND THE DESIGN

This glorious design comes from Sangorski & Sutcliffe, a world-renowned British bindery best known for their bejewelled cover of Omar Khayyam's Rubaiyat.

Established in London in 1901, Sangorski & Sutcliffe quickly rose to become one of the 20th century's most important bookbinders. They were celebrated for their jewelled bindings, like the one reproduced here. Crafted in 1922 to house Rudyard Kipling's 1897 "Recessional" poem, written for Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee, the original binding incorporated real turquoise, aquamarine and ruby gemstones, alongside medieval-style illumination by Alberto Sangorski and gold tooling by George Sutcliffe.

In the late 1980s, Sangorski & Sutcliffe was acquired by Asprey, joining forces with Zaehnsdorf under the SSZ umbrella. But the family name was restored in 1998 when Shepherds Bookbinders bought the company. It is an honour to work with such a luxurious bookbinding and to share the legacy of Sangorski & Sutcliffe with 21st-century stationery lovers and bibliophiles.

THE STORY BEHIND THE DESIGN

This striking Art Deco design comes from the British bookbinder Sybil Pye (1879–1959), heralded as one of the top female artisans of her time.

Self-taught, Pye began producing her first works in the early 1900s using naturally coloured leather, before graduating to multi-coloured panels. By 1934 she was creating complex covers of up to six different inlays, and her work was regularly exhibited throughout England and around the world.

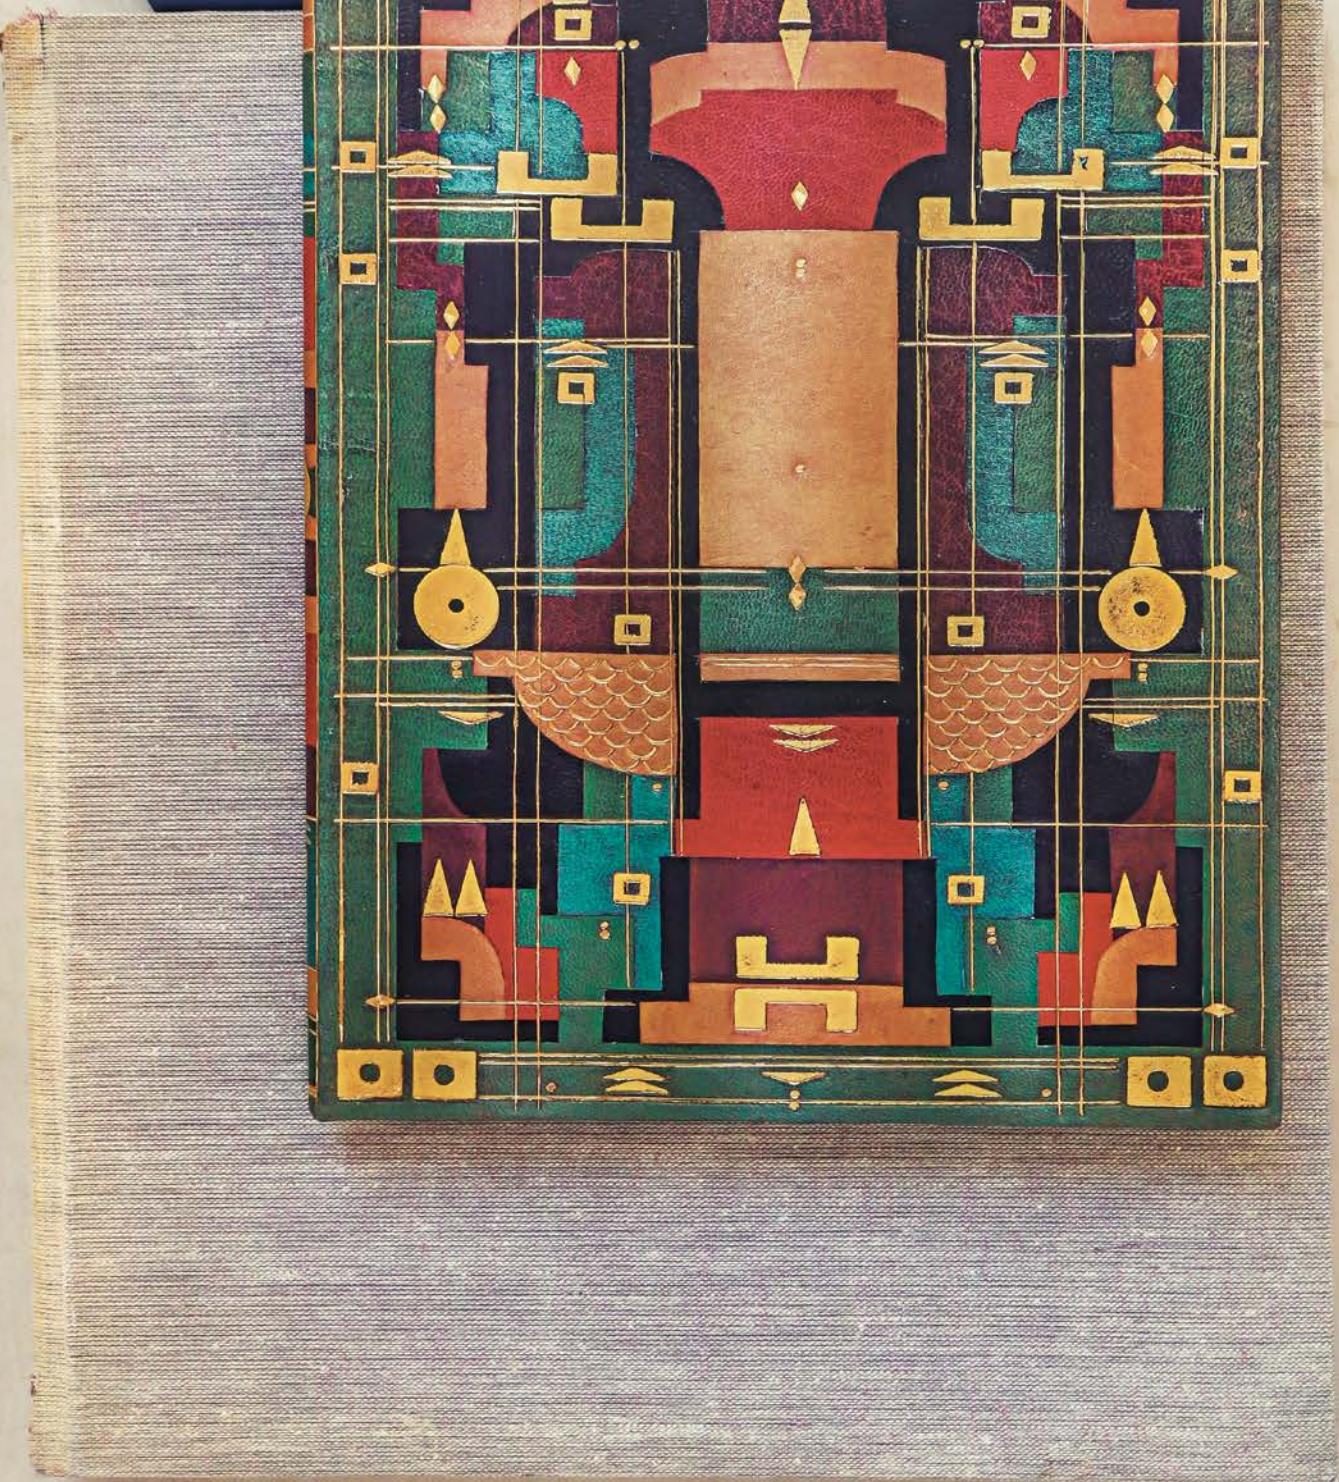

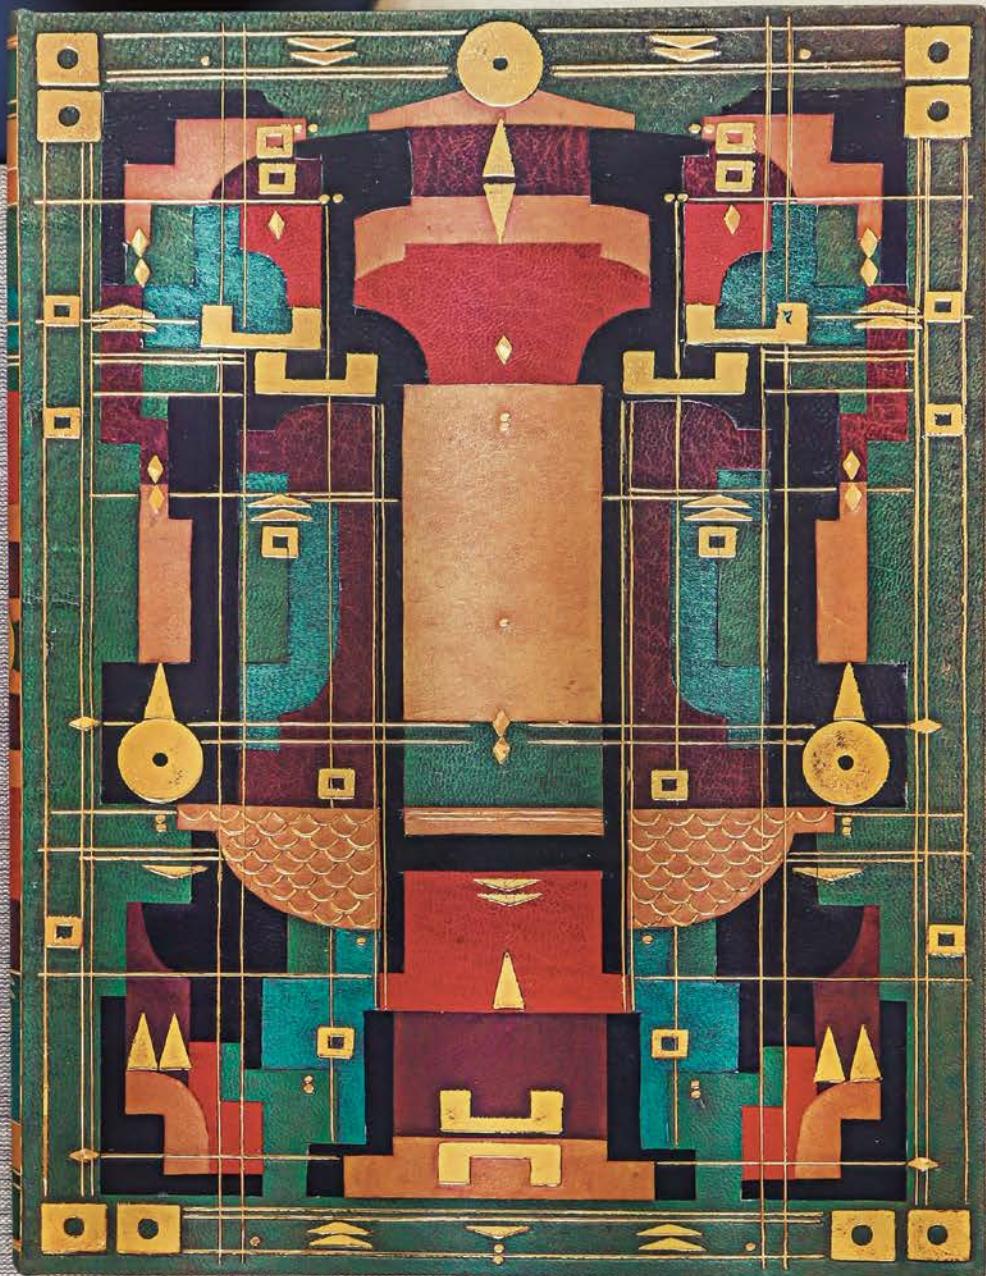

This particular design was crafted to hold a collection of William Wordsworth's poems illustrated by Pye's lifelong friend Thomas Sturge Moore. Though we can't be sure that Pye intended to evoke the image of a lion's majestic head with this cover, the possibility offers an interesting connection between the binding and its original contents, as one of Wordsworth's poems is titled "Picture of Daniel in the Lions' Den, at Hamilton Palace."

One of the youngest pre-First World War women binders, Pye was the only binder in England who specialized in inlaid leather bindings. With this series, we pay tribute to a pioneering woman in the art of book design.

THE STORY BEHIND THE DESIGN

This beautiful jewel-toned purple and gold design is a shining star of bookbinding history.

Originally crafted from red morocco leather with intricate filigree and golden pointellé, the binding has been in the collection of the Bibliothèque Nationale de France (BnF) since the Second Empire (1865–1870). It was designed by an unknown Parisian atelier to hold the Pars Hiemalis (or, winter) section of the Parisian Breviarium, a book that dictated the liturgical rites of the Catholic Church throughout the church year.

The binding's contents were printed in 1645 by S. and G. Cramoisy, one of the first secular workshops given authority to print liturgical works for the Catholic Church. However, this manuscript and binding was likely produced for a book collector rather than having been used in service. With such brilliant filigree work, it is easy to see why a noted bibliophile of the era would commission the piece, and why the BnF would so proudly hold it in their collection for the last two centuries.

THE STORY BEHIND THE DESIGN

For over a century, the Cockerell family name represented the highest quality bookmaking. Though no longer in business, the Cockerell and Son Bindery remains celebrated for their unique style of paper marbling, developed by the late Sydney (Sandy) M. Cockerell.

Described as a “latter-day Leonardo,” Sandy Cockerell possessed not only an artist’s talents, but a scientist’s mind and engineer’s skill as well. He took the painstaking tradition of handmade marbled papers and found a way to produce the strikingly complex designs at high speeds and volumes. By improving existing equipment and creating his own gadgets and tools when that which he needed did not already exist, Cockerell embraced new mass production techniques.

For his contributions to the paper arts, Sandy Cockerell was awarded an OBE and an honorary doctorate from Cambridge. When we launched Paperblanks journals in the early 1990s, a selection of his designs graced some of our first covers. We are honoured to return these iconic marbled papers to our collection with this black, white and red Rubedo design.

THE STORY BEHIND THE DESIGN

Experience Shakespearean history with our First Folio notebooks, reproducing a binding found at the esteemed Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington, DC.

This stately gold-tooled design comes from a unique binding attributed to Christian Samuel Kalthoeber, a German bookbinder working in London. He created the beautiful new cover for this copy of Shakespeare's First Folio around 1800. Originally published in 1623 in London and containing 36 of Shakespeare's plays, Mr. William Shakespeare's Comedies, Histories & Tragedies (known as the First Folio) is one of the most influential books ever published. It is the only reliable text for the 18 Shakespeare plays that had previously never been printed, including The Tempest and Twelfth Night.

Today, there are only 235 known surviving copies, from approximately 750 printed, and the Folger Shakespeare Library itself holds 82 of those copies. We are honoured to introduce this beautiful and unique binding as our first reproduction from the Library's unparalleled collection.

THE STORY BEHIND THE DESIGN

With pages displaying astounding plays of naturalistic illusionism, the luxurious personal prayer book known as the Spinola Hours is one of the most visually sophisticated Flemish manuscripts of the 16th century.

A book of hours contains texts including a calendar of Church holidays, the Hours of the Virgin (a cycle of prayer services devoted to the Virgin Mary), the Office for the Dead, and other prayers, hymns and readings. This particular example augments these contents with a special series of weekday offices and masses, providing even more possibilities for rich illuminations. The book was undoubtedly commissioned for a wealthy patron, perhaps Margaret of Austria, for whom the Master of James IV of Scotland, a famed manuscript illuminator and painter, produced other works. In the 1700s it belonged to the Spinola family in Genoa, from whom it takes its modern name.

We are honoured to feature this unparalleled example of illumination from the J. Paul Getty Museum as part of our collaborative collection.

THE STORY BEHIND THE DESIGN

Unheralded wildflowers and weeds are given a voice in our Vox Botanica series, featuring the work of celebrated Art Nouveau illustrator Anton Seder.

Seder (1850–1916) was a designer, art professor and eventual Director of the noted Kunstgewerbeschule (Arts and Crafts School) in Strasbourg, Alsace-Lorraine. With the region at that time hotly contested by both France and Germany, the art scene that arose offered a unique marriage of cultures. Influences from both countries, along with Victorian, Baroque and even Japanese woodblock elements, can thus be seen in Seder's work.

This particular piece, originally chromolithograph on paper, comes from one of his best-known works, Die Pflanze in Kunst und Gewerbe, or The Plant in Art and Trade. Published in Vienna in 1890, it offers two volumes of stunning prints gracefully depicting elements of nature. Seder's harmonious use of space, plethora of details and candid depiction of natural elements drew us to this piece. With this series, we herald Seder's unique voice and vision for his plants in a new era of art and trade.

THE STORY BEHIND THE DESIGN

Our Silver Filigree Collection celebrates the splendour of ornamental bindings decorated with filigree metalwork. To achieve the gilded and polished motifs on these book covers, a base layer of silver sheets was first die cut, and elaborate grooves were then meticulously etched into the surface.

This long-time favourite series reproduces two unique original bindings. The first, currently featured on our Blush Pink and Maya Blue designs, was produced in Strasbourg to house a 1697 edition of Johann Arndt's Paradiesgärtlein. The second (at right), featured on our Aubergine covers and this new Garnet notebook, originally housed a book of hymns and was crafted in Swabia in the early 1800s. At that time, Empire-style, as seen in this design, was the leading style in European decorative arts. The grandeur of the cover's ornament reflects the period's idealization of Imperial Rome and Ancient Egypt.

NEW THIS SEASON!

Wilde, The Importance of Being Earnest

A man as tormented as he was beloved, Oscar Wilde (1854–1900) overcame a life of extraordinary ups and downs to become a world-renowned playwright, author and poet. He stands as one of the most influential writers of the Victorian era.

Wilde's work is fraught with the insights of a man who possessed a deep understanding of both the positives and perils of society. Criticized for what was perceived as an "effeminate nature" and oppressed by a largely homophobic world, Wilde remained resilient. He used his experiences to form brilliant, if controversial, literary works.

The comedy The Importance of Being Earnest, a draft of which is reproduced here, was a great success upon opening but saw its run cut short when Wilde was imprisoned for "gross indecency." This represented one of the first famous celebrity trials but was, sadly, only one of many persecutions of a member of the LGBTQ community for a consensual act. We first released this Embellished Manuscript in 2010, and this season we bring it back in celebration of Wilde's literary legacy and personal perseverance.

Old Leather Collection

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Wrap Closure

Our Embellished Manuscripts and Old Leather books come from the same piece of inspiration — a sample of William Shakespeare's handwriting that we knew would make an inspiring journal cover. We experimented with how to enhance the handwriting and so designed a simple gold frame inspired by Renaissance-style book bindings. Since our earliest days, that gold frame has been the backbone of our Old Leather designs, allowing us to experiment with colour and other added embellishments.

Celebrating what it is about Renaissance-style bindings that we have always found so captivating — the rich hues of the dyed leather — all of our Old Leather Collection and Old Leather Classics designs share this combination of embellished frame and coloured background. Most books in the original Collection also have wrap closures, though we have experimented with magnetic straps, while our Classics offer a simple, expandable elastic band. These are the perfect books for people with a classic style who don't want to settle for a plain black book.

Lang's Fairy Books

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Elastic Closure • Book Edge Printing

These captivating images come from first edition copies of Andrew Lang's The Violet Fairy Book and The Olive Fairy Book. These collections of fairy tales and folklore are part of a twelve-part series known as Lang's Fairy Books (or Andrew Lang's Fairy Books of Many Colours). Compiled by Andrew Lang, illustrated by Henry Justice Ford and published under the editorial direction of Lang's wife, Leonora Alleyne, the books were a sensation among British schoolchildren and were sold all around the world. Each book in the series was named for the colour of its fairy. Today, first editions of Lang's Fairy Books can be found in the British Library's archives.

Peking Opera Embroidery

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Wrap Closure

The dramatic art tradition of opera, so famed in Italy, actually traces its roots to the earliest periods of ancient China. During the Tang Dynasty (618–907), the Emperor Taizong founded an opera school called Liyuan (Pear Garden), establishing opera's importance in the country.

Chinese opera reached its pinnacle under the patronage of the Qing court (1644–1911), giving birth to what is known as Peking Opera. In its early days, male performers played all the roles, even the female ones, and costumes reflected the identity and personality of the characters. It is a piece of beautifully embroidered male opera skirt that we have reproduced for this cover.

Turquoise Chronicles

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker • Pouch
Clasp Closure • Book Edge Printing

Let a swirl of turquoise amid gilt embellishment inspire you to write your chronicles. This cover design is based on a binding originally published by Salel Binder in Paris in 1514. The tome, Chroniques, was created at a time when books were evolving and binders were using smaller formats that were easier to bind. Pasteboards replaced wood covers and gold tooling grew in popularity.

The exuberance of the Chroniques design reflects the sheer splendour of the Renaissance approach to decoration that influenced architecture, art and all facets of cultural life. In the glittering, aqua green-blue of this cover you may well see the intricacies of your own stories or the infinite possibilities of the written word. At minimum, we hope that Turquoise Chronicles will make you think of Paris, which has for centuries been a centre for art and publishing and a beacon of culture.

Poetry in Bloom

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Clasp Closure • Book Edge Printing

Our Poetry in Bloom series reproduces a 1910 book cover for The Sensitive Plant and Early Poems by Percy Bysshe Shelley. The binding was originally crafted in London, England, by Riviere and Son (bookbinders to the Royal Family). It was bequeathed to The New York Public Library by A.W. Spencer, who perished aboard the Titanic, and is now a part of the Library's Spencer Collection along with other fine bindings and illuminated manuscripts. The journals in this series feature an elegant clasp closure and book edge printing pattern that complement the design.

Lindau Gospels

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Elastic Closure

The original Lindau Gospels' binding was designed to inspire awe when the book was carried in processions or displayed on an altar. Its back cover, reproduced here, stands out as a piece of bookmaking masterwork. Tooled in gilt, silver and enamel and adorned with jewels, this ornate binding was crafted in a German workshop near Salzburg between 750 and 800 AD. It now stands proudly in New York's Morgan Library and is heralded as being one of the most important acquisitions of the collection. J.P. Morgan purchased the illuminated manuscript in 1901, and it was this exquisitely designed book that set a new direction for his many subsequent additions.

Equinoxe

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Clasp Closure • Book Edge Printing

The intricate rules that governed life during Holy Week deserved to be housed in a similarly momentous and ornate binding. In cultures all over the world, the first full moon after the vernal equinox is a sacred time. The cover reproduced here protected L'office de la Semaine Sainte, which explained the many rites and observances to be followed during the most important period in the Christian calendar.

The entire surface of the original cover was adorned “à la fanfare,” an elaborate, handtooled pattern edged in gilt. Fanfare, which was a style popular from the late 1500s until the early 1700s, required tremendous skill on the part of the bookbinder and was reserved for books of great importance.

Our cover, featuring a tendril motif, reproduces a 1688 binding from the Düsseldorf Museum Kunstpalast.

Safavid Binding Art

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Wrap Closure

Our Safavid Binding Art series portrays a leather filigree pattern incorporating handtooled motifs, retaining the elegance and style of the Islamic Golden Age even in our modern context. Dating back to the 17th century, this artwork comes from the rich handicraft tradition that Shah Abbas the Great, the Fifth Shah of the Safavid Dynasty, inspired during his reign. He recognized the commercial benefits of promoting the arts and so the crafts of tilework, pottery, textiles and illuminated manuscripts thrived.

Voltaire's Book of Fate

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Wrap Closure

This handsome design once housed the legendary writer Voltaire's Zadig, or The Book of Fate, first published in 1747. The Book of Fate tells the story of Zadig, an ancient Babylonian philosopher. It is a philosophical treatise that makes startlingly effective use of contradiction and juxtaposition. In it one finds the seeds of the modern detective story, including a likely source of inspiration for Edgar Allan Poe's master of "ratiocination," C. Auguste Dupin. Today the original binding can be found in the Rare Book and Special Collections archive at the Princeton University Library in New Jersey, USA.

There are few authors more influential and admired than Voltaire (1684–1778). His work especially appealed to late 19th-century France, which was recovering from an 1870 defeat by Prussia. The French people responded by focusing on objects of profound beauty and intellectual depth in order to showcase their ideals and dreams for the future. These ideals were exemplified by the work of Voltaire, one of France's most celebrated sons. It is no small wonder that his Zadig was chosen to be reprinted in this marvellous golden binding, crafted in 1893 by Chamerot et Renouard in Paris.

The Queen's Binding

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Clasp Closure • Book Edge Printing

Nobility and grace are restored in this filigreed journal design, originally created in 1675 to hold Richard Allestree's The Government of the Tongue. Crafted by the Queens' Binder "A," one of the most prolific binders of the Restoration period, the balance of open space and intricate elements makes it a shining jewel of the period.

The Queens' Binder was a name given to a small group of English craftsmen during the "Golden Age of English Bookbinding." Modern research indicates that the name actually encompasses four distinct shops, and even individual binders such as "A" could refer to multiple artisans. While the name of the binder called "A" is not known, there is no doubt as to the regency of this gilt binding, which is now a part of the Henry Davis gift at the British Library. We are honoured to help restore the design, representing the pinnacle of English craftsmanship, to its original glory.

Aurelia

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Elastic Closure • Book Edge Printing

The inspiration for this cover comes from a leather book bound in Paris in 1748 that held copies of King Louis XV's procedures for Holy Week. Originally crafted by Pierre-Paul Dubuisson, the binding is now housed in the British Library's collection.

Dubuisson was himself bookbinding royalty of a sort. He and his father specialized in almanacs decorated with gold plates, and Dubuisson became the King's official bookbinder in 1758. Despite Dubuisson's near-royal stature, this binding was once falsely attributed to Nicolas-Denis Derome "le jeune," another celebrated French bookbinder of the era. And like Dubuisson, Derome is no stranger to our Paperblanks collection as it is his medieval "au semé" motif that graced our Parisian Mosaic covers.

New York Deco

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Elastic Closure

New York City is home to an endless number of famed landmarks and tourist attractions, including the eye-catching skyscrapers that punctuate the city skyline.

Described in an original brochure as the “mise en scène for the romantic drama of American business,” one such tower is the Chanin Building. This midtown Manhattan landmark was built by developer Irwin S. Chanin in the late 1920s and its magnificent lobby, designed by René Chambellan and Jacques L. Delamarre, draws in architecture aficionados. Ornately adorned with bronze grilles representing some of the finest Art Deco in the city, the lobby was modernly styled around a “City of Opportunity” concept. One of these ventilator grilles, with loops, spirals and geometric lines symbolizing human thought and emotion, is reproduced here.

William Kilburn

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Wrap Closure

The eternal appeal of a classic floral design is captured in the work of Irish illustrator William Kilburn (1745–1818). The artist behind William Curtis' Flora Londinensis, a comprehensive book on 18th-century English botany, Kilburn was also a leading designer and printer of calico. With winding twigs, colourful petals and undulating seaweed, Kilburn's unique ability to blend local flora with exotic plants is on full display in these designs.

Laurel Burch Collection

The art of Laurel Burch (1945–2007) has an unmistakable uplifting quality. Born in Southern California, Laurel was diagnosed with a congenital bone disease that resulted in more than a hundred cases of bone fractures over the course of her life. She was raised under difficult circumstances and as a teenager chose to create her own, independent path. Through these personal hardships, Laurel focused her energies on bringing joy into the world, especially by way of her art.

As a single mother, Laurel made San Francisco her home and provided for her family by selling her creative homemade metal jewellery. She developed a unique quirky style that charmed the people of the Bay Area and became popular around the world. When she visited China in 1971 to start mass production of the goods she designed, she discovered “cloisonné,” a traditional technique of embellishing metal surfaces with enamel. This became a signature feature of her artistic style. Laurel spent her life creating art that would remind people of this magic, and with these covers we seek to honour her intention. Thanks to her vibrant and joyful style, our collection of journals featuring her artwork has long been one of our most popular.

HUNT-LENOX GLOBE

SOFTCOVER FLEXI — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker Pouch • No Closure • Book Edge Printing

One of the greatest treasures in The New York Public's Library collection is a hollow copper globe, just 112 mm in diameter. What makes the Hunt-Lenox Globe unique is that it is one of only two known instances of a historical map using the phrase "HC SVNT DRACONES" ("here be dragons"). The Hunt-Lenox Globe is recognized as one of the oldest terrestrial globes, and the oldest to depict the Americas.

VIRGINIA WOOLF'S NOTEBOOKS

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Elastic Closure • Book Edge Printing

A modernist and feminist pioneer, Virginia Woolf (1882–1941) carved out new territory for artists, particularly women writers. She wrote with sensitivity and insight about the confusion, mystery and uncertainty of everyday life. Part of Woolf's innovation was to reject traditional plots in favour of explorations of the inner lives of her characters.

Woolf's 1931 novel The Waves, originally drafted in a series of seven notebooks including those reproduced for these covers, is among her best and most experimental works. Today, these seven notebooks are a part of The New York Public Library's Henry W. and Albert A. Berg Collection of English and American Literature and are featured in the Polonsky Exhibition of The New York Public Library's Treasures.

DE SIDERIBUS TRACTATUS

SOFTCOVER FLEXI — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker

De sideribus tractatus is a 15th-century manuscript copy of De astronomia, a late 1st-century BC treatise on astronomy thought to have been composed by C. Julius Hyginus, a freedman of Augustus Caesar and chief librarian of the Palatine Library in Rome. This manuscript's text is believed to have been inscribed by Francesco Buzzacarini. The artwork, attributed to Giovanni Vendramin and a miniaturist known as the "Douce Master," is what makes it such an exceptional copy. Today, the manuscript is part of The New York Public Library's Spencer Collection and is featured in the Polonsky Exhibition of The New York Public Library's Treasures.

VAN GOGH'S IRISES

HARDCOVER — Smyth Sewn • Ribbon Marker
Pouch • Elastic Closure • Book Edge Printing

Dutch artist Vincent van Gogh (1853–1890) was one of the greatest of the Post-Impressionist painters. The near spiritual excitement of his swirling brushwork, contoured forms and intense colour has had a powerful influence on the development of modern painting. Though much of his work, like this *Iris*es study, is filled with brightness and light, Van Gogh's own life was filled with personal turmoil.

A severe mental health crisis, in which he now-famously cut off his own ear, prompted Van Gogh to admit himself to the Saint-Paul Asylum at Saint-Rémy in the south of France. His recuperation began with painting of the asylum garden, *Iris*es chief among the resulting output. The close study of nature was the foundation of Van Gogh's art, as his precise delineation of individual flowers suggests, but he also brought to that study an astonishing degree of subjective intensity. One can emotionally feel the painting's strong colours, thickly applied paint and powerful decorative rhythms, all of which convey the artist's sense of nature's surging vitality.

We are honoured to feature this seminal painting from the J. Paul Getty Museum in our collection.
