COVER COMING SOON

Dear Booksellers,

Dive into inspiring stories and rich recipes with this month's Hardie Grant titles!

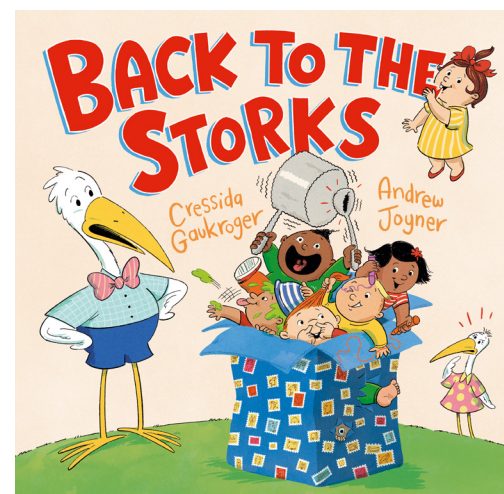

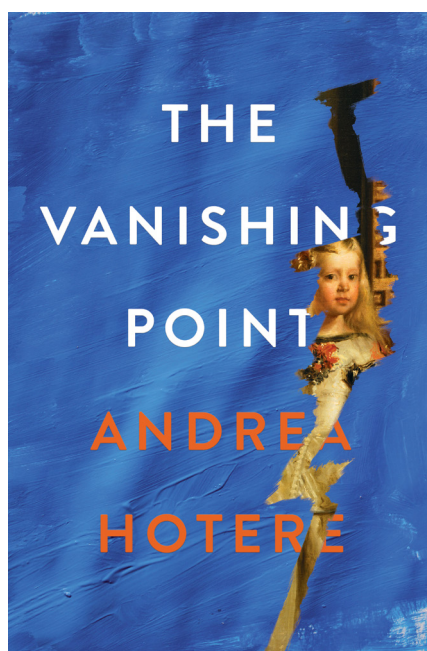

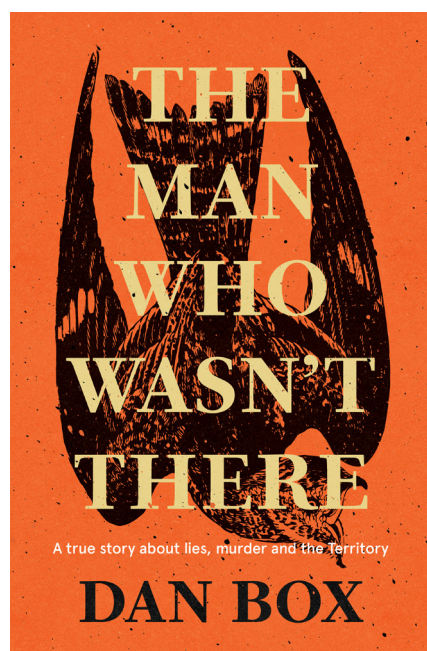

From one of Australia's most revered AFL players comes Lance Franklin: My Football Journey! A celebration of his career, this must-have autobiography tells Lance's inspiring story in his own words and is filled with awesome sports photography, action shots and contributions from fellow AFL players and coaches.

Level-up your cooking with this cookbook perfect for novice cooks or busy families! Adam Liaw returns with 7 Days of Dinner, featuring more easy family recipes inspired by the seven days of the week as seen on his hit SBS Food series, The Cook Up! And wander into world of fashion and glam with the latest Megan Hess illustrated biography of style and screen legend, Grace Kelly!

From Ultimo Press comes The Man Who Wasn't There, a true story about lies, murder and injustice in the Deep North of Australia, from Walkley Award-winning journalist and bestselling author, Dan Box. The Vanishing Point is a dazzling and spellbinding work of historical fiction about a mysterious painting, the secrets it keeps, and the two women connected across centuries by a quest to discover the truth.

Introducing Back to the Storks: A hilarious tale of naughty babies and exasperated parents! In this sparkling picture book by Cressida Gaukroger and illustrator Andrew Joyner, parents discover they can send their mischievous babies back to the storks' village. Will the babies settle in or be returned to sender? This sly and tongue-in-cheek story is the perfect "parents' revenge," offering laughs and a reminder to find patience with exasperating little ones. Get ready for an uproarious adventure in parenting hilarity!
