

The Briefing

December 2023

Featuring: Megan Hess, Luke John Matthew Arnold, Andrew Bain, Adrian Hyland, Ali Rutstein & Niña Nill

Dear Booksellers,

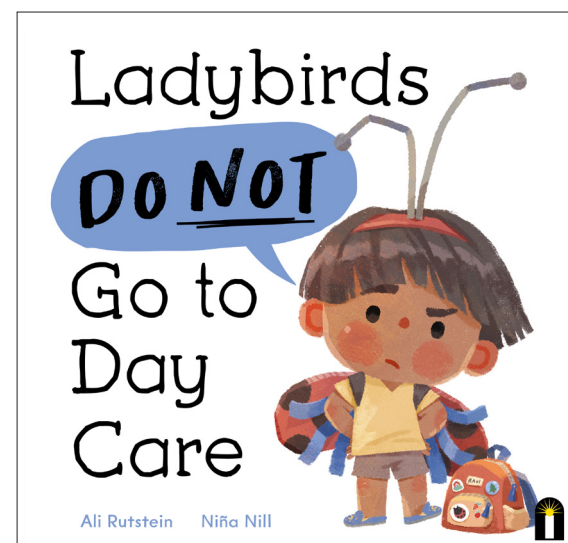

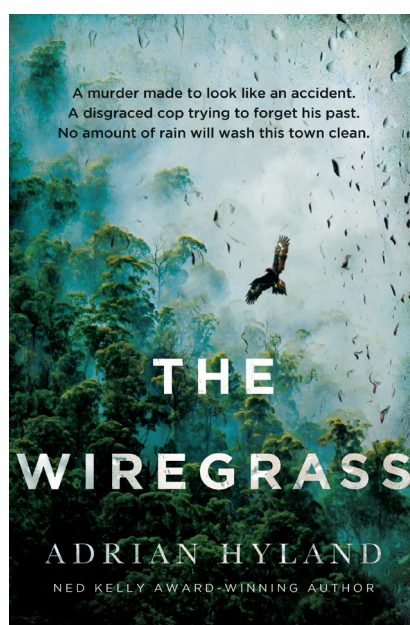

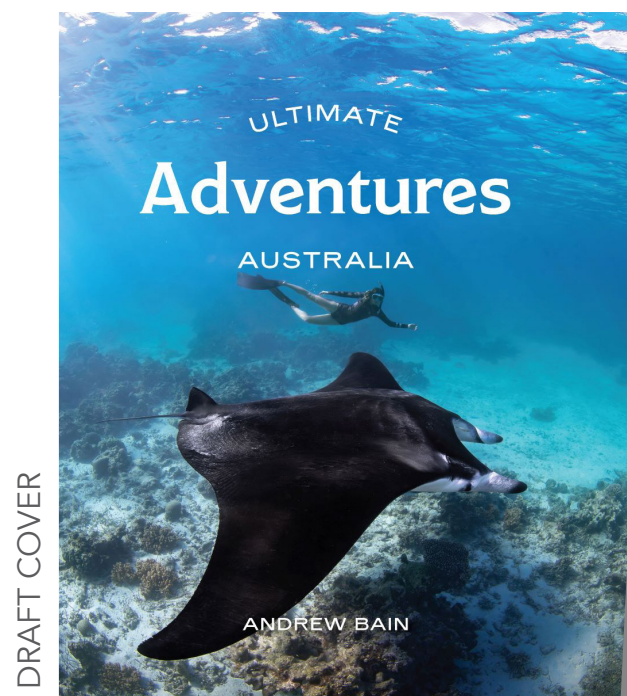

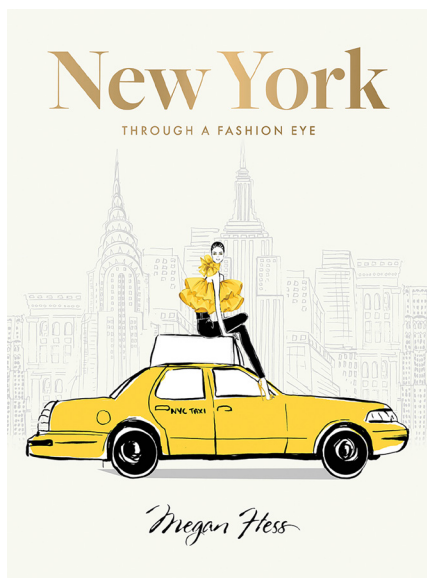

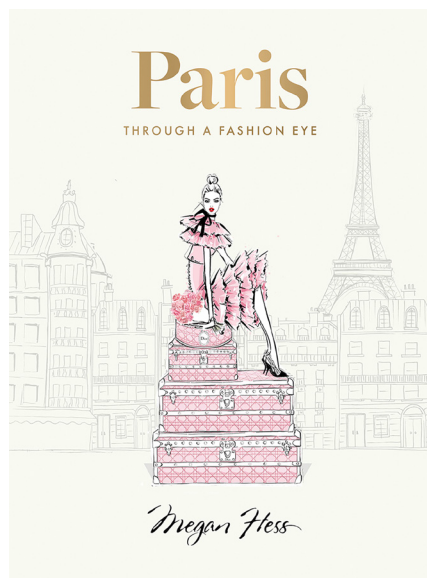

End the year with a bang with these titles from Hardie Grant!

See Paris and New York as you've never seen before through Megan Hess' stunning illustrations in new special editions of Paris and New York: Through a Fashion Eye! Illustrator star Luke John Matthew Arnold's *Nobody Really Has Their Sh*t Together* also makes a beautiful gift for yourself or anyone you love - his inspirational (and a little bit rude) doodles are guaranteed to bring a smile in tough moments. And introducing the latest in the Ultimate series, Ultimate Adventures Australia! Author Andrew Bain serves up more than 60 unique and accessible adventure experiences in this latest guidebook, with plenty of options to suit all interests.

From Ultimo Press comes the new Jesse Redpath thriller, The Wiregrass by Adrian Hyland. Nash Rankin is a disgraced cop trying to escape his past; Jesse Redpath has a new job in a new town, Satellite. A local has died in what seems like an accident, but Jesse isn't so sure that 'accident' wasn't planned. All evidence seems to point to Nash, but Jesse's not sure about that either. What looks like a close-knit community might just be cover for dark secrets.

From HGCP, a brand-new series to help kids broach new and sometimes stressful events! In Ladybirds Do Not Go to Day Care, we meet Ravi, the ladybird who'd rather skip day care and snack on aphids at home. Can Ravi find the bravery to take flight? From Debut writer Ali Rutstein, this empowering, funny picture book encourages kids to embrace new challenges. Illustrator Niña Nill adds adorable charm, and a huge built in following with over 40k followers on socials. This modern classic fills the back-to-school gap!
