

The Briefing

April 2024

Featuring: Dave Verheul, Dr Kerryn Phelps AM, Annie de Monchaux, Aoife Clifford, Ella Mulvey & John Roebuck

DRAFT COVER

Dear Booksellers,

Discover the perfect pairing of flavours and stories with these titles from Hardie Grant!

Close the week in style with highly acclaimed chef Dave Verheul's evocative and original guide to weekend entertaining, On Sundays. Divided by the four seasons, each chapter includes a selection of self-contained recipes to inspire your perfect Sunday, from lunch on a languid summer afternoon to wintertime fireside feasts.

Explore Dr Kerryn Phelps's remarkable life in her landmark memoir, Power of Balance. Kerryn candidly explores her biggest struggles and achievements, both within and outside the halls of Parliament, as well as all the things that have motivated and sustained her, including her philosophies of leadership and equality, and her love of her family and of the water.

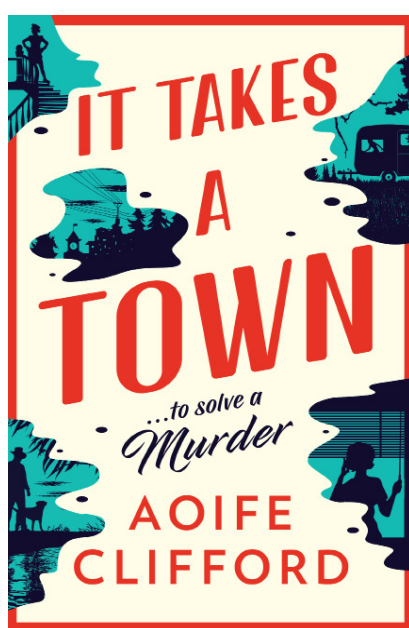

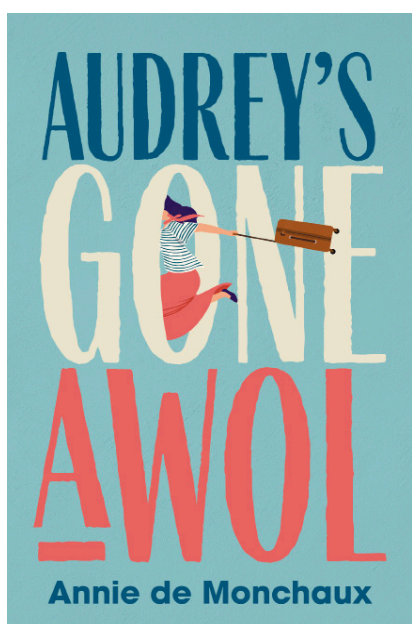

DRAFT COVER

From Ultimo Press comes Audrey's Gone AWOL by debut novelist Annie de Monchaux—a funny and beautifully observed story about losing yourself, finding yourself, and discovering joy. Crime author Aoife Clifford's It Takes a Town is an unputdownable novel that asks: what happens to a community when murders and abductions sit alongside petty workmates, teenage tribulations and longstanding friendships? It will take a town to solve this crime, but what will be broken in the effort to piece together the truth?

Batthew Aromascent and the Missing Corpse Flower is the first in a new irresistible mystery middle grade series by Ella Mulvey and John Roebuck! The smell-mad city of Candlenut is in an uproar when the world's largest and most pungent flower goes missing right before its grand unveiling. Luckily, Matthew Aromascent, 11-year-old heir to the famed Olfactory fragrance house, and his best friend, Lavender, are on the case.
