

The Briefing

June 2024

Featuring: Adriana Picker, Grant Roff, Louise Wolhuter, Harrison Christian, Toni D'Alia & Mimi Purnell

DRAFT COVER

Dear Booksellers,

Unearth new discoveries with these titles from Hardie Grant!

Take a floral journey through the seasons with botanical illustrator Adriana Picker in Blossom. This beautifully illustrated collection tells the story of flowers from around the world alongside practical ideas for reconnecting with nature—from making natural oils and perfumes to lessons in floral anatomy and drawing.

And get set for adventure with Ultimate Motorcycle Tours, featuring 20 of best motorcycle routes from around the world. This guide has something for both casual and hardcore riders. It also includes tips to help you get the most from your trip and interviews where avid motorcyclists share their expertise on the roads.

From Ultimo Press comes the next novel from Louise Wolhuter, Shadows of Winter Robins. When a news story prompts Winter Robins to look back at her past, she begins to wonder whether things were as idyllic as she had thought at the time. As she uncovers secret after secret, she realises a much darker narrative may have been—and perhaps still is—playing out. In Terra Nova, Harrison Christian draws on fresh documents to examine the circumstances of Robert Falcon Scott's death following his 1910 attempt to reach the South Pole, throwing suspicion on Edward Evans and other officers. Terra Nova delves into the lives of these remarkable men, revealing a story of betrayal that was left out of the official narrative.

Finally, Worms Are Our Friends invites us into the garden to admire the hard work of one tiny earthworm. This stunning picture book from Toni D'Alia and Mimi Purnell teaches preschool readers about how these diligent critters contribute to our ecosystem by helping our soil, plants and environment thrive.
